IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Beyond your arched porch and spacious hallway, the front reception room is full of vintage-style charm, with light spilling in from the bay windows and rear door. You'll love the feature fireplace, Edwardian beading and hardwood floors, while the neutral decor will act as the perfect backdrop for any of your own touches.

The balance between old and new continues in the kitchen and adjoining additional reception, where an island sits centerstage, making the room the perfect hub for entertaining. The exposed wall and timber flooring contrast beautifully with the modern appliances. There's no shortage of light thanks to the floor to ceiling patio doors and skylights, and you'll love the convenience of having a storage room, utility room and downstairs WC, too.

Upstairs, the three thoughtfully decorated bedrooms come with ample storage - and one even has its own dressing room and ensuite, while the bathroom is spacious, contemporary and spotless.

Outside, you have a fabulous rear garden, with a sun-trap patio and large shed. Beyond, Buckhurst Hill's Queen's Road has a great array of independent eateries, pubs and stores, which you'll love exploring as you get to know this friendly community.

WHAT ELSE?

- This property is in the catchment area for outstanding primary St Johns.
- Buckhurst Hill station is a 22 minute walk away and will get you directly into the City (23 minutes to Liverpool Street) and West End (32 minutes to Tottenham Court Road) via the Central line.
- If you're looking for a bit of sporting action, Buckhurst Hill Bowling and Lawn Tennis club is a short stroll, and Chingford Golf Course and Chingford Cricket Club are near too.
- Parents will be pleased to know you have plenty of primary/secondary schools rated 'Good' or 'Outstanding' by Ofsted in the area.

A WORD FROM THE EXPERT....

"Originally springing up around the Eastern Counties Railway in the mid nineteenth century, Buckhurst Hill is these days well served by the central line, whisking you straight to Liverpool Street in just twenty three minutes.

Still largely residential, Buckhurst Hill is one of the latest range of town and country sweet spots, offering an increasingly popular mix of easy city access, generous square footage and endlessly explorable local greenery.

Housing stock is mostly original Victorian, Edwardian and 1930s properties. Decades of owner development mean you have everything from converted apartments to comprehensively expanded townhouses to choose from, with personality and character in plentiful supply both inside and out."
