A WORD FROM THE OWNER...

"We live in a really wonderful street of kind and warm neighbours. A short walk to both Wanstead and South Woodford, there is never a shortage of lovely coffee shops - two Gail's bakeries in walking distance. There are lovely restaurants and both Wanstead and South Woodford have a lovely farmers markets every month. There's even a cinema and theatre within walking distance. Around the corner from my house I can go down an alley way and I feel like I am on a countryside walk. So many green spaces. I am sad to be leaving as I write this. I am also really going to miss my garden, which has a very open aspect looking out to the forests and is very peaceful."
