A WORD FROM THE EXPERT...

"I feel right at home in Hackney, although I'm originally from Greece. You can be anyone, wear whatever you like and always feel welcome. The multiculturalism here comes across in the diversity of the cafés, restaurants, shops and bars. From specialty coffee shops and Michelin star restaurants to beautiful parks and art galleries, Hackney has something for everyone. Weekends at Victoria Park or Broadway market are filled with great community energy, international delicacies and local artisan creations. For dog lovers, the marshes are beautiful for afternoon and weekend walks with your four-legged friends. And while you're there, you can stop by the river Lea at the Princess of Wales for a Sunday roast, Here East for brunch, or Crate Brewery for pizza and a local beer. Properties in the area vary from characterful Victorian and Georgian houses to charming local authority red-brick blocks and beautifully designed modern developments with communal roof terraces. I have found my home in Hackney and it holds a very special place in my heart."

➔ IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Step inside and you're greeted by a wealth of versatile space in the hallway – plenty of room here for any necessary storage, or even that most modern of essentials, a home working nook. Even more storage awaits, as ranks upon ranks of floor to ceiling wardrobes lead you down the hall into that glorious kitchen/diner. In here, Lacuna timber framed bifold patio doors give out to your evergreen private patio, home to fragrant jasmine.

From here head on to the communal gardens – a great spot to get to know the neighbours. Back inside, and your main space comes in at a covetable 300 square feet, with classic oak off-cut parquet timber underfoot. Your kitchen area occupies the far end, with bespoke timber cabinets, under counter double drawer fridge, ILVE cooker, plus dishwasher, washing machine, tumble drying and freezer by MIELE. Bespoke concrete worktops and brass fittings complete the aesthetic.

Elsewhere, your bedroom's a substantial double of 120 square feet, naturally bright, with twin sash windows framing leafy greenery and divided by a striking tower radiator. Next door and your bathroom's especially luxurious, with designer flooring and twin vanity sinks by Marble Partners, and charming Vola fittings including an integrated brass rainfall shower set into floor to ceiling tilework. You have underfloor heating in here too, and it's all finished in Farrow & Ball wet room paint.

Outside, and Hackney Central station is less than five minutes on foot, putting a huge range of direct destinations at your fingertips, from Camden Town to Hampstead Heath, Clapham Junction to Stratford. There's a wealth of options locally too, with the bustling bars and cafes of Wilton Way just around the corner, including Wilton Way Deli, Two Doors bistro and much-loved local hangout Violet. A vibrant community, Wilton Way's also host to street parties and supper clubs.
